

What is AGV?

AGV is the Association of Government Veterinarians: it is a non-territorial Division of the BVA, and membership is open to anyone who is employed by a Government department, or provides services to Government.

What can AGV do for you?

- Provide relevant and accessible CPD (independent, self-financing)
- Access to events
- Channel of communication to BVA
- International communication and linkage (EASVO)
- Network of colleagues across Government
- Continuity after retirement
- Solidarity
- Opportunity of Council membership
- Positive engagement with senior management across GVS
- Input into consultations
- Newsletters
- Engagement with other organisations
- Promote the veterinary voice
- Authoritative, independent opinion on matters affecting vets in Government

What can you do for AGV?

- Join us
- Pay your subscription
- Contribute to newsletters
- Attend events and CPD
- Provide feedback on communications, website, consultations and events
- Promote membership to others
- Provide news items, information about innovation, views
- Stand for council

The more members, the more value the organisation can offer