

ALL RIGHT, BUT APART FROM THE SANITATION,
THE MEDICINE,
EDUCATION, WINE,
PUBLIC ORDER,
IRRIGATION, ROADS,
THE FRESH-WATER SYSTEM,
AND PUBLIC HEALTH,

WHAT HAVE THE ROMANS EVER DONE FOR US?

The Veterinary Public Health Association and the Association of Government Veterinarians are pleased to announce that the Spring Conference will be on 17th March 2018, at the Cedar Court Hotel, Wakefield. We will be discussing Brexit and its impact on the Veterinary Profession with a wide range of leaders within the political and veterinary fields.

Speakers include:

- Lord Kirkhope of Harrogate - EU Home Affairs Sub-Committee
- Mr John Procter, Conservative Party MEP
- Dr Slaven Grbic, President of the Union of Veterinary Hygienists representing the Federation of Veterinarians of Europe
- Dr John Fishwick, President of the British Veterinary Association
- Dr Christine Middlemiss, UK Chief Veterinary Officer
- Dr Robert Huey, Chief Veterinary Officer Northern Ireland
- Dr Peter Jinman OBE, Chairman of the Farmers Club and Chairman of Defra's Farm Animal Welfare Committee

How to apply:

Please apply using the booking form, but contact simon.woliter@eandj.co.uk for full details.

Student discounts available

Friday evening (16th) light casual diner

Saturday evening (17th) conference dinner

Annual General Meetings AGV and VPHA will be held on the 17th of March - all members welcome free of charge.