

INVITATION TO VETERINARY UNDERGRADUATES FROM THE UK AND IRISH SCHOOLS TO SUBMIT POSTERS FOR

VPHA-AGV Autumn Conference

Vets' Dilemmas: Yes? No? Why?

Saturday 3rd November 2018, Hothorpe Hall, Leicestershire

Our topic for this conference will be Veterinary Dilemmas relevant to vets and wider society. We will look at issues in the public and animal health and welfare sector and the reasons that influence decision making. We hope that this will be an interactive and thought-provoking day with plenty of time for discussions. Why YES or Why NOT?

There are two categories that POSTERS can be submitted to:

CATEGORY 1: Research

Quantitative, qualitative, lab-based, public animal health or welfare related.

CATEGORY 2: Conceptual Idea(s)

Research ideas or proposals, theoretical concepts, policy, discussion points.

Please fill in the details below and send back to Peter Moore (petermoore333@gmail.com) along with a photograph or hyperlink to a photograph. If you want to discuss your topic or what you can do, do not hesitate to email us.

Poster criteria:

- We will provide a vertical board to display your poster on. It must be no bigger than A0 and ideally no smaller than A1.
- Unfortunately we cannot cover the cost of printing, but if your poster is accepted, we will cover the cost of a day-delegate package.
- Newcastle University provide some helpful resources to making a poster. Powerpoint is a handy package for making one. <http://libguides.ncl.ac.uk/academicposters>
- This form must be submitted by 15th October 2018.
